Dear Ms. Badmington,

The Global Women's Innovation Network (GlobalWIN) invites you to join us for an overnight delegation trip to Boston, Massachusetts, taking place October 2-3, 2019. We plan to fly to Boston Logan Airport from Ronald Reagan International Airport in the morning of October 2 to begin programming in Boston mid-morning. Events will continue through the evening, and the next day, concluding late in the afternoon on October 3. You will depart Boston Logan Airport at 5:00 PM, Thursday, October 3, returning to Washington D.C before 7:00 PM.

Although we are in the early planning stages, we will confirm policy discussions and site visits with companies at the forefront of innovation and technology, as well as with female leaders in health sciences, politics and other industries. Your work on these topics and active participation in our discussions will be a great asset to our delegation, which will include senior staff from both Republican and Democratic Senate offices.

As you know, GlobalWIN was founded in 2009 as an educational, nonpartisan 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. With honorary co-chairs Senator Shelley Moore Capito (R-WV), Senator Maggie Hassan (D-NH), Congresswoman Martha Roby (AL-02) and Congresswoman Debbie Wasserman Schultz (FL-23), GlobalWIN provides a dynamic forum for women executives and thought leaders in academia, government, and business who are passionate about innovation and its potential to advance critical policy issues. GlobalWIN is dedicated to helping women in these fields and related policy debates by providing opportunities to: 1) recognize their contributions to innovation and related policy debates; 2) share their views & engage publicly; 3) access resources that might not otherwise be readily available to accomplish these objectives; 4) broaden their network across areas of expertise and beyond our borders.

As the primary sponsor of this trip, GlobalWIN will cover your travel and meal expenses related to the trip, in compliance with the rules under Senate ethics laws. GlobalWIN has a record of successful Senate Staff delegation trips, including Seattle in 2017 and Baltimore in 2018.

To ensure timely submission of ethics materials to the appropriate committees by Friday, August 30th, please confirm your interest in the trip by calling our office at 202-548-0021, or by sending an email to Tizzy Brown at tizzy@helenmilby.com.

Sincerely,

Helen Milby

GlobalWIN Private Sponsor Travel Certification Form Addendum

2. Description of Trip

As a part of its annual programming, GlobalWIN will host an educational trip to Boston, Massachusetts October 2-3 2019. GlobalWIN will be bringing 10-12 Senate Staff Members from Republican and Democratic Offices to Boston, Massachusetts on Wednesday, October 2nd for approximately two days of intensive programming on an array of issues including telecommunications, healthcare, tech, entrepreneurship, innovation and female leadership. Our stay in Boston will combine all tiers of GlobalWIN programming and provide participants the rare opportunity to grow professionally, while connecting with experts and leaders outside of Washington, DC.

5. Name and title of Senate invitees

See additional attachment.

12. Briefly describe the role of each sponsor in organizing and conducting the trip:

GlobalWIN is organizing and financially supporting all aspects of this trip, including all travel logistics, meetings, speakers, and panel discussions throughout the hours of official programming. GlobalWIN is the sole organizing and financial sponsor of this trip, and will be covering all costs incurred by our delegation of Senate staffers.

Co-chaired by Senator Shelley Moore Capito (R- WV), Senator Maggie Hassan (D-NH), Congresswoman Martha Roby (R-AL) and Congresswoman Debbie Wasserman Schultz (D-FL), GlobalWIN is a bipartisan 501(c)(3) organization that provides a dynamic forum for women who are passionate about innovation. We have built and continue to expand this powerful network of executives and thought leaders in academia, government, and business, who work in innovation-driven fields. GlobalWIN provides an important forum for female leaders to grow personally and professionally, while contributing to key policy debates.

GLOBALWIN PROGRAMMING: GlobalWIN highlights the important role of women in innovation through three programming silos:

1. Monthly Policy Events & Annual Innovation Luncheon: GlobalWIN features leaders in academia, government, and business, who have made significant contributions in STEM and related fields to educate our audience on policy issues associated with global innovation and strategies for addressing them.
2. Career Development: GlobalWIN provides opportunities and support for women, both entering into and advancing within innovation fields, through continuing educational opportunities and mentoring programs.
3. Educational Trips & Global Partnership Building: Through educational trips, GlobalWIN builds cooperative partnerships with like-minded organizations, such as the European Network for Women in Leadership, based in Paris, and the 30 Percent Club chapter in Dublin. GlobalWIN aims to foster global cooperation among women on the key issues related to innovation, technology, and economic growth.

11:45 PM Women at the Forefront of Science Technology: Lunch with Sanofi Genzyme
12:45 PM 50 Binney Street
Cambridge, MA 02142

As the specialty care global business unit of Sanofi, Sanofi Genzyme's work is focused in the areas of rare diseases, rare blood disorders, multiple sclerosis, oncology, and immunology. In a unique commitment to female leadership, each department is led by a woman! Each day they continue to advance new therapies, demonstrating their commitment to making a positive impact on the lives of patients around the world. Across each of the therapeutic areas where they focus, they work to identify and address unmet medical needs where patients do not have adequate treatment options. Their commitment to scientific discovery and innovation is foundational to their ability to serve their existing patient populations and offer hope to underserved patient populations in the future. This potential to improve patients' lives inspires the more than 4,000 Sanofi Genzyme employees who work at the forefront of health care and biotechnology, along with thousands of Sanofi colleagues around the world.

1:00 PM How CRISPR is Changing Cancer Research with The Novartis Institutes for BioMedical Research (NIBR)
2:00 PM 250 Massachusetts Ave
Cambridge, MA 02139

CRISPR has quickly captivated major scientific journals and the popular press for sparking a revolution in genetic engineering. While the ultimate prize is to eradicate diseases, the technology is already shaping how potential medicines for cancer and other conditions are discovered. NIBR has adopted CRISPR to research potential gene therapies and to identify drug targets.

Novartis researchers in Cambridge and Basel, Switzerland use CRISPR to quickly and precisely investigate thousands of genes related to cancer as potential drug targets. As performed, the effort would have been impossible without the genetic engineering technology. This allows these groups to ask and answer the question, "Is this gene required for the survival of this cancer?"

5:30 PM                      Reception feat. Boston City Council Member Michelle Wu
6:30 PM

Michelle Wu has been a voice for accessibility, transparency, and community engagement in city leadership. First elected to the Boston City Council in November 2013 at the age of 28, Wu is the first Asian-American woman to serve on the Council. In January 2016, she was elected President of the City Council by in a unanimous vote, becoming the first woman of color to serve as Council President.

Councilor Wu was the lead sponsor of Boston's Paid Parental Leave ordinance and Healthcare Equity ordinance prohibiting discrimination based on gender identity -- both of which passed unanimously through the Council and were signed into law by Mayor Martin J. Walsh. She also authored Boston's Communications Access ordinance, which guarantees translation, interpretation and assistive technology for access to city services regardless of English language proficiency or communications disability.

Wu got her start in City Hall working for Mayor Thomas M. Menino as a Rappaport Fellow in Law and Public Policy, where she created the city's first guide to the restaurant permitting process from start to finish, and was also a driving force to launch Boston's food truck program. She later served as statewide Constituency Director in the U.S. Senate campaign of her former law professor, Elizabeth Warren.

6:30 PM                      Dinner feat. Heather Campion, Managing Director at Koya Leadership Partners
